Exclusion from the World Trade Organization (WTO) Agreement on Government Procurement

Central Japan Railway Company

On October 28th Central Japan Railway Company was excluded from the World Trade Organization (WTO) Agreement on Government Procurement. We are deeply grateful for the assistance received from everyone involved in this matter.

As always, Central Japan Railway Company will continue to procure technologies and products with superior quality, price point and product support service from inside Japan, as well as countries all over the world, as we strive to guarantee safe and reliable transportation.
